The situation relating to Nagorny Karabakh (see S/23370/Add.19, S/23370/Add.43, S/25070/Add.14 and S/25070/Add.17)

By a letter dated 24 July 1993 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/26164), the Permanent Representative of Azerbaijan to the United Nations transmitted a letter of the same date from the Acting President of Azerbaijan, Chairman of the Supreme Soviet of the Azerbaijani Republic, addressed to the President of the Security Council, in which he requested an immediate meeting of the Council, in the light of "the continued escalation of Armenian aggression, directed at the territorial fragmentation of the sovereign Azerbaijani State" and the seizure of the Azerbaijani city of Agdam, and called for intervention by the Security Council on the basis of the powers conferred upon it by the Charter of the United Nations.

In a letter dated 27 July 1993 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/26168), the Permanent Representative of Turkey to the United Nations stated that alarming reports were being received from Azerbaijan, according to which Armenian armed forces had occupied the town of Agdam the previous week and had since then been carrying out a large-scale offensive against another Azeri town, Fizuli. He stated that, in the light of those alarming developments in a region contiguous to Turkey, his Government requested the Security Council to consider the situation urgently "in order to stop the aggression against Azerbaijan and secure the immediate withdrawal of the Armenian forces from all occupied Azeri territories".

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 3259th meeting, held on 29 July 1993, in response to the above requests.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Armenia, Azerbaijan and Turkey, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/26190) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations, and to a technical change to be made to the text of the draft resolution.

The Security Council then proceeded to vote on draft resolution S/26190 as orally revised in its provisional form, and adopted it unanimously as resolution 853 (1993).

"The Security Council has heard with deep concern the report from the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Former Yugoslavia on the situation in and around the United Nations Protected Areas (UNPAs) in the Republic of Croatia and in particular in respect of the Maslenica crossing.

"The Security Council reaffirms the presidential statement of 15 July 1993 (S/26084). Following this statement the parties reached an agreement on 15/16 July 1993 at Erdut which requires the withdrawal of Croatian armed forces and police from the area of the Maslenica Bridge by 31 July 1993 and the placing of the bridge under the exclusive control of the United Nations Protection Force (UNPROFOR).

"The Security Council demands that the Croatian forces withdraw forthwith in conformity with the above-mentioned agreement, and that they permit the immediate deployment of UNPROFOR. The Council also demands that the Krajina Serb forces refrain from entering the area. The Council calls for maximum restraint from all the parties, including the observance of a cease-fire.

"The Security Council warns of the serious consequences of any failure to implement the above-mentioned agreement.

"The Council will remain actively seized of the matter."
